Raeburn Portrait Brings $12,300 in Art Sale

112 Paintings, Including Works
by European and American
Artists Raise $89,830

Sir Henry Raeburn's forceful portrait of the Right Hon. Robert Blair, of Avontoun, was sold for $12,300 last night at the American Art Galleries during a sale of 112 paintings from the art gallery of Scott & Fowles, of 680 Fifth Avenue. The entire group, including works of eminent European and American painters, realized a total of $89,830, many prominent art dealers and private collectors taking part in the bidding.

The Raeburn, a striking three-quarters portrait of a bewigged worthy in black coat and breeches standing beside a table, was acquired by A. J. Kobler. The portrait was formerly in the J. A. Maconochie Welwood collection, measured 50 by 40 inches, and is a subject familiarized in mezzotint by James Heath. The picture easily led the sale, the second most important offering being an early Dutch "Portrait of a Maiden," by Paul Van Somer, which the Ehrich Galleries bought for $3,500.

The sale included many specimens of the British portrait school, of which "Miss Summerville," by Francis Cotes, R. A., brought $3,200, selling to Lewis & Simmons. This firm also acquired Van Marcke's "Landscape With Cattle" for $2,700, "Marianne, Daughter of the Artist," by Franz Von Lenbach, for $2,900, and "Summer Sunshine and Shadow," by George Inness, N. A., for $2,100.

Sir Peter Lely's "H. M. Mary of Modena" was sold for $3,000 to Frederick Brennan, who also acquired "A Prince of Bavaria," by Nicolas Maes, for $2,500. The Kleinberger Galleries bid $2,100 for "Madonna and Child," given to Boltraffio, and Chester Dale paid $2,700 for a pastel by Degas entitled, "Dancers at the Bar."

The recent sale of the collection of Scott and Fowles, of Fifth Avenue, New York, released to the art world several exquisite examples of the work of celebrated painters. At the sale, which was conducted by the American Art Association, two of the most interesting exhibits were the daughters of Rubens and Von Lenbach, painted by their fathers. Von Lenbach was, perhaps, the greatest of the nineteenth century German school, and painted many portraits of Bismarck. The Cadogan-Cowper of the Regency was Richard Cosway, whose miniatures are world-famous. All the beauties of the Court sat to him, including Mrs. Fitzherbert. Quite a cosmopolitan picture made its appearance in the portrait of a fair-haired prince of Bavaria, by Nicholas Maes of the Dutch School. The picture was hung at one time in the collection of Lord Middleton of Wollaston Hall, Notts.

Conditions of Sale

1. REJECTION OF BIDS. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
2. THE BUYER. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.
3. IDENTIFICATION AND DEPOSIT BY BUYER. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address. ¶ A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required. ¶ If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.
4. RISK AFTER PURCHASE. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's risk, and neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.
5. DELIVERY OF PURCHASES. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.
6. RECEIPTED BILLS. Goods will only be delivered on presentation of a receipted bill. A receipted bill presented by any person will be recognized and honored as an order by the buyer, directing the delivery to the bearer of the goods described thereon. If a receipted bill is lost before delivery of the property has been taken, the buyer should immediately notify the Association of such loss.
7. STORAGE IN DEFAULT OF PROMPT PAYMENT AND CALLING FOR GOODS. Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser or agent by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser. ¶ In any instance where the purchase bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Association and the auctioneer reserve the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the purchase bill, at its or his option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to re-sell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency and all losses and expenses sustained in so doing.
8. SHIPPING. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, but the Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

9. GUARANTY. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of the sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse. ¶ Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.
10. RECORDS. The records of the auctioneer and the Association are in all cases to be considered final and the highest bid shall in all cases be accepted by both buyer and seller as the value against which all claims for losses or damage shall lie.
11. BUYING ON ORDER. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge of commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale, except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be refunded, if the lot differs from its catalogue description. ¶ Orders for execution by the Association should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

These conditions of sale cannot be altered except by the auctioneer or by an officer of the Association

CATALOGUE

FOREWORD

THE present important collection is placed on the market by Messrs. Scott and Fowles, 667 Fifth Avenue, on the expiration of their lease and the occasion of their moving to smaller temporary quarters at 680 Fifth Avenue, New York. Scott and Fowles, who have been established in New York for a quarter of a century, have maintained during this period a reputation for the quality of their paintings and the probity of their dealings which is familiar to every amateur of art; and the present paintings have been placed in the hands of the American Art Association for disposal at free and unrestricted public sale.

This firm has been favorably known for its specialization in the works of the English school of the XVII and XVIII centuries, of which the present collection is in large part composed. Kneller is represented by five sitters, including the delightful Youth in a Blue Coat (No. 55) and Sir Peter Lely by no less than seven portraits, of which may bear mention a graceful three-quarter length of Queen Mary of Modena (No. 99). The XVIII century is also strongly represented by Reynolds, with portraits of Dr. Thomas Barnard (No. 58) and Anthony Chamier M.P. (No. 59), both recorded in Graves and Cronin's work; Romney, with two portraits, including one of Robert Raikes, the philanthropist, from the collection of his grand-daughter; Northcote, Allan Ramsay (vide the charming Ladies of the Gage Family), Opie, Cotes, Harlow and Sir William Beechey, the last with the sterling portrait of the Misses Bannister. An important and vigorous Raeburn, Robert Blair of Avontoun, illustrated as the frontispiece, deserves separate commendation, and a rare canvas by the miniaturist Richard Cosway (No. 66), is of exceptional interest in its freshness of treatment.

The more interesting pictures of the foreign schools include one of the daughter of Peter Paul Rubens at the age of about five; an important decorative Weenix; a Degas pastel, a Daubigny, and a Van Marcke of the finest quality; and a striking portrait of his daughter by Frank von Lenbach.

Two valuable primitives are the Madonna with Child of Giovanni Boltraffio, from the P. A. B. Widener collection, and a beautiful Gothic triptych of the Bruges school, strongly recalling Memling.

The central panel depicts St. Anne enthroned, reading from a missal resting on her lap; she is flanked on one side by St. Joseph of Arimathea; before her the youthful Virgin with long curling hair is seated holding the Child on her lap; to left and right of her in the near foreground are two coroneted saints, the two Marys. All wear rich red robes; the saints and canopy of throne of Gothic velvet. The left wing depicts the donor kneeling before his patron saint, who stands nearby in a bishop's robes. The right wing depicts the donor's wife before a patron saint who is about to place a crown on her head. The exterior of the two wings beautifully painted in monochrome gray with subject THE ANNUNCIATION, both figures being clad in exceptionally fine voluminous robes of many folds; above is the descending dove and banderole bearing lengthy inscription.

Arched triptych: Height, 30 inches; width (closed), 23 inches

Note: Professor Hoffner referring to this painting says: "Too good to be all Flemish, probably under French influence." De Riche says of it: "Executed in Atlea from other models. The interior of leaves from Memling; the exterior after Roger Van Der Weyden. A very analogous Annunciation is in the Morgan Collection at the Metropolitan Museum."

79. MRS. MARGARET CARPENTER,

DAUGHTER OF CAPTAIN GEDDES

Lewis & Simmons

A portrait of brilliant virtuosity and color, closely allied to Lawrence's work and strongly realistic in feeling. The sitter is painted in bust-length within an oval; the black dress with its ermine at the shoulders is repeated in the large black disk of a picture hat with trailing white ostrich feathers, framing the delicate face with its trailing brown curls tied with blue ribbon, straight nose and high complexion, the blue eyes looking over the left shoulder.
